

IditaREAD 2018

Family & Team Literacy!

St. Croix Falls Public & School Libraries

Join the race to Nome & celebrate teams that read together!

The Iditarod is a 1,049 mile sled dog race through the cold Alaskan tundra. This year, let's participate in the race! Your family or team will read, read, read. The sled dog teams will mush, mush, mush! Who will get to 1,049 first? The musher you choose (in miles), or your reading team (in minutes spent reading)?

Name of Musher Your Team is Challenging:

Reach 1,049 minutes before your musher finishes the Iditarod race & win!

What: A chance to learn about the Iditarod & for your family or team to enjoy reading together & on your own.

When: From March 3rd-April 3rd

How: Choose a musher from the provided list, check up on his or her progress using a website below. Keep track of how many minutes anyone in your family or on your team reads. For each 10 minutes read by anyone, fill in one circle on your team reading log.

What else: We'll celebrate with Sled Dog stories and we'll wrap up the race with a big party!

More prizes: $20 book bucks for any St. Croix Falls Elementary Student who participates!

For more information about the Iditarod, check out these websites: <http://iditarod.com/> & <http://teacher.scholastics.com/activities/iditarod/>

Keep the top portion of this sheet. Return bottom half ASAP. Return your completed forms to Ms. Platt before March 5th!!
