

Gifts and Donations

The library accepts donations of recent books, audiobooks on CD, music CDs and DVDs.

Donations should be clean and in good condition. A rule of thumb is; donate it to the library if you would give it to a friend. Also, please do not bring more items than you can carry into the library.

The library does not accept donations of old news magazines, textbooks, VHS/cassettes or encyclopedias.

All donations are accepted without condition, and immediately become the property of the library. They cannot be returned.

Some donations will be added to the collection. The same criteria for inclusion in the library's collection apply to gifts as to purchased materials. The rest are to the friends book sale or recycled.

Donations added to the collection may be subsequently withdrawn when they are worn or when their content is no longer current.

If you need a receipt for tax purposes, one will be provided. Library staff cannot assign a dollar value to items donated, but can include a description of what is donated, i.e. 3 hc books or 12 pbk books.

Memorial gifts of books or money are also accepted with suitable bookplates placed in the book. Specific memorial books can be ordered for the library upon request, granted the request meets the criteria established by the Library Board of Trustees.
